Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form for Clinical Lead/ Supervisor Applicants

RASASC is committed to implementing equal opportunities and we are especially concerned that all people are enabled to access our service. In order to monitor the recruitment of personnel we ask that you complete this form which will be used for statistical purposes by ourselves. It will enable us to evaluate our service provision and how accessible the organisation is for different groups of people, particularly those with disabilities so that we can make the necessary changes in the future and target people we are not reaching. There is no penalty for not completing the form but we would be grateful if you could. Please use the envelope provided and if you wish you can return it to us separately from your application form.

Please tick or complete the relevant sections as appropriate.
